DIED, after a lingering illness, on Thursday morning, at half past 8 o'clock, at the residence of Mr. George Green, near St. Joseph's Perry Co., Ohio. Mr. Nicholas Zahm, aged 87 years.

The subject of this notice was born at Olsburg, in Wolminster County, Germany, on the 2nd day of April, 1787, and moved to this country at the age of 42 years. After landing at New York City, he purchased a horse and wagon and in his humble way, he moved his little family across the mountains to Wayne County, Ohio, where he resided till the year 1838, when he moved to Perry County, Ohio, where he purchased a small farm near St. Joseph's, on which he lived for many years. Becoming old and feeble, he sold his farm to his daughter, Mrs. Beber, and chose his home with his son-in-law Mr. George Green, where he died, as will be seen, on the morning of his 87th birthday. Mr. Zahm was a quiet, inoffensive man; honest and industrious; a strict member of the Catholic church; without an enemy on earth, he has left an example worthy of imitation. He left four sons and four daughters together with one hundred grand and great grand children to mourn his loss.

PETER ZAHM 50TH ANNIVERSARY

MR. and MRS. PETER ZAHM CELEBRATE GOLDEN ANNIVERSARY

Mrs. Nicholas Fisher, the Bridesmaid, Present--Another Couple to Observe Happy Event

Fifty years ago today, October 24, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Zahm were united in Marriage in this city. Today surrounded by their family, relatives and their friends, the fiftieth anniversary was celebrated in an auspicious manner.

Peter Zahm was born in Hessendarmstadt, Germany, October 3, 1826; he came to this country in 1846 and soon afterwards located in this city where he engaged at his trade of a merchant tailor. His good wife is a native of Bavaria, Germany. She came to this country in 1853, making the journey alone. She met Peter Zahm and on October 24, 1855, they were married here in the old St. Peter and Paul's Church, then a log structure. They continued as residents of Huntington, living most respectable lives, raising a happy family, and advanced in age with the development of the city. The officiating clergyman at their wedding fifty years ago was, Father Faller, of Fort Wayne, when the Huntington church was then on that circuit. The groomsmen was Nicholas Fisher, now deceased, and the bridesmaid was Mrs. Nicholas Fisher.

Golden wedding ceremony services were conducted at the St. Peter and Paul's Church this morning, beginning at 8 o'clock mass by Father Heusen. A novel feature was the appearance of Mrs. Fisher who officiated as an attendant to Mr. and Mrs. Zahm as she had done a half century before. After the services, the bridal party received many congratulations.

At the age of 79 and 70 respectively, Mr. and Mrs. Zahm are in comparatively good health, and may see many years ahead of them. An all-day affair was held at the Zahm home at 33 Oak Street today, at which were present many of the immediate family, relatives, neighbors and friends. Among the out-of-town guests in attendance were: Mrs. George and Mrs. Hertie, of Antwerp, Ohio, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Zahm and two sons, Mr. and Mrs. Limbach and son, and Joseph Auer, of Delphos, Ohio, Mrs. Elizabeth Guethler, of Laporte, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Knecht and Miss Lizzie Zahm, of Fort Wayne; Mr. and Mrs. Mote Doughitt, of Indian Territory. Mr. Zahm's only sister, Mrs. Sophia Johnson, aged 89, of Clear Creek Township, was among the guests; Andrew Zahm, and family and Mrs. Peter Bauer and family, of this city, were children present. George Zahm, of Grand Rapids, was the only member of the family absent. The aged couple were the recipients of many fine presents.

Buried in Mount Calvary Cemetery, Huntington County, Indiana, Section D Lot 78W.

BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH: "The History of Perry County, Ohio - 1883"

ANDERSON, CATHARINE C., Pike Township, Maholm post office, Ohio; farmer's wife; was born July 17, 1821, in Germany, daughter of Nicholas Zahm and Elizabeth (Coheart) Zahm. Mrs. Anderson lived in Germany until she was eight years of age, when she came with her parents to America, taking ship at Havre De Grace and landing in Philadelphia, where they bought a horse and wagon and drove to Wooster, Ohio, and from thence to East Union, Wayne County, Ohio, where her father entered eighty acres of land, upon which he lived for ten years, when he moved within five miles of Somerset, this county, where he bought fifty acres of land and lived twenty-five years. At this time he went to Indiana, where he spent about nine years with his sons, Peter, Jacob, and George, after which he returned, and lived with Mrs. George Green up to the time of his death, dying at the age of eighty-seven years, and upon his birthday, near St. Joseph's Academy. Mrs. Anderson was married, January 6, 1840, to William D., son of Daniel and Anna (Hendrickson) Anderson, who was born March 5, 1819, in Pickaway County, Ohio, but was living at St. Joseph's Academy at the time of his marriage. After their marriage they lived for two years one mile south of the above named Academy; from thence they moved to Hocking County, Ohio, where they lived six years, and again returned to about the same place they removed from, remaining this time about two years, when they came to where Mrs. Anderson still lives, at Bristol Station, in April of 1854, where he bought eighty acres of land, upon which he made all the improvement; supplanting the log house by a neat frame dwelling, and gave most of his attention to farming. He, in his life, gave considerable attention to the running of a saw mill, having owned one about seventeen years; and after running a portable mill about five years, he sent it to Indiana, where his sons are now using it. He also owned eighty acres east of the present home, but sold forty acres of that tract, which leaves one hundred and twenty acres in all. He was station agent on the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, and postmaster at Bristol Station, and kept a dry-goods and grocery store at the same place and same time, up to the time of his death. Mrs. Anderson has opened a grocery store at Bristol Station, in co partnership with her daughter, Augusta Irene, who is, at this time, station agent and postmaster at the above place. Sarah A. is assistant postmaster, and France A. C. is general assistant at both the store and post-office. Mr. and Mrs. Anderson became the parents of thirteen children, viz.: Philamon A., Mary E., (deceased), Adrian C., Daniel S., Emily H., (deceased), Thomas Mc., Agnes P., Margaret A. (deceased), Cecily C. (deceased), William N. (deceased), Augusta I., Sarah A., and France A. C.

D. Anderson, on January 6, 1840. After their marriage they lived two years one mile south of St. Joseph's, from thence they moved to Hocking County, where they lived 6 years and again returning to about the same place they removed from, remaining this time about two years when she moved to Bristol Station, where she spent the rest of her life, about 46 years. OBITUARY

Died, Saturday evening, September 18, 1880, Mr. William D. Anderson, aged 61 years, 6 months and 13 days. He was the father of 13 children, eight daughters and five sons; four daughters and one son have gone before him to the grave. They left this world of false joys and happiness to join the choir of angels and saints to enjoy eternal happiness forever. He, too, has followed them, and is placed in earth's cold bed, to be no more in the torments of this world, but he bore his troubles with patience, for the love of God. He was a devoted and loving husband and parent, a kind neighbor and friend, the idol of his household, and a generous, charitable citizen, loved and respected by all who knew him. Heavy and grievous to be borne is the hand of affliction laid upon the surviving wife and children. God knows best. He giveth and he taketh away, and blessed are they that fear not the Lord. May the Angels of Peace and Hope pour the oil of consolation into their troubled hearts, and may they find comfort in the knowledge that he whom they loved and who loved them so well, has gone to dwell at last in his heavenly home.

He's gone, a tender chord is riven,

But he is happier there,

Nor would I call him back from Heaven.

To breathe ever this bright air.

His earthly work forever done,

And on his brow so white

The starry crown he's proudly won,

Gleams 'mid the cypress bright.

Miss Anderson, a young lady, about eighteen years of age, died suddenly at her home, near Bristol station, last Thursday. She had been well and buoyant, until a few minutes before her death.

Newspaper Article

Through an oversight we failed to notice last week, the sad and very sudden death of Miss Francis Anderson, a young lady at Maholm, and sister-in-law of Mr. H. Beach, of our town. This deplorable monster visitor comes when least expected, is never welcome, though inevitable sooner or later. We may as well be resigned and prepare ourselves. This young lady was nineteen years of age, had many rare accomplishments, was entertaining, social, harmless, charitable, and above all a faithful Christian. To be cut off from her friends and relations so suddenly is almost an unbearable shock. But let the Lord's will be done. Her remains were interred at St. Patrick's Cemetery.

House and Farm Buildings are Consumed

Loss is Almost $10,000.00

Insurance Amounting to $3,500.00 is Carried--Fire Catches From Chimney

With a good start and no opposition, fire made fast inroads among the buildings on the Jacob Zahm farm, three miles northwest of the city, Sunday morning, consuming everything in sight. At a rough estimate the loss is figured between $8,000.00 and $10,000.00 with $3,00.00 insurance.

The fire was discovered by Mr. Zahm at about 9:45 o'clock Sunday morning. It had been raging some time before being discovered. The crackling noise made by the flames was heard for some time before the true cause was realized. Mr. Zahm thinking that the noise was made by the family dog in another part of the house. The fire was located in the roof of the west wing of the house, and when discovered the roof was ready to fall in. A strong breeze was blowing and the fire had such a good start that the residence was doomed before the discovery was made.

Among the buildings destroyed was the large residence of fifteen rooms, together with the contents. From the residence the fire spread to the large barn, 40 x 64 feet, and from that to the stables, sheds, pig pens, etc.

Very fortunately no one was hurt, neither was there any live stock burned. A young team of horses was rescued from the stable just in the nick of time. Two minutes later and they would have perished. The contents of the barn, such as hay, feed, etc. were a loss.

Frank P. Scheiber is a tenant on the farm, but he was not at home at the time. Mr. Zahm and two young boys were at home. He is a man seventy-five years old. He is just convalescing from an attack of the grip, which affected his hearing and accounts for the fire not being discovered sooner. the supposition is that the fire originated from a spark from the chimney.

The fire continued in its westward course and leaped the stream and in the afternoon was burning in a woods to the west.

Children Gathered Around Bier of Father and See His Form Laid Away --- Death is Victor

Jacob Zahm, a retired farmer and the father of noted Catholic church people in various parts of the United states, died at his home on North Jefferson Street Monday evening at 5:20, after an illness of about ten days. Neuralgia of the heart was the cause. He had been a resident of this city since 1903.

One week ago last Friday Mr. Zahm was suddenly stricken while in bed and felt severe pains in the chest. The next day he was able to be out in the yard, but grew worse in the evening. From that time on his condition was on the decline. Members of the family were called home and several were here at the time of the father's demise.

Four years ago, when the farm house and all the other buildings at the Zahm place north of the city were burned to the ground, the aged man, who was then too old to engage in the active work of the farm, moved to this city and built a home on the corner of North Jefferson and Madison streets. The old farm place was nicely arranged and well improved. The loss of the entire group of buildings caused the family to move to this city.

Mr. Zahm was born March 3, 1828, in Germany, in a small place called Oldsberg, near the border of France. When only six weeks old he came to this country and located in Wayne County, Ohio. Later his parents moved to Perry County, Ohio, where he grew to manhood. Later he learned the carpenter's trade and followed it several years. May 6, 1849, he was married to Miss Mary Braddock, and in 1863 come to this county and settled in the country just north of the city. He followed the vocation of a farmer until a few years ago, when his health and age caused him to retire and lease his land, still remaining on the farm until the time of the fire.

In 1884 Mrs. Zahm died and he was left to care for the family.

WELL KNOWN MAN IS DEAD

Mr. Jacob Zahm Dies at His Home in Huntington After Long Illness

Word was received in Wabash Monday evening of the death of Jacob Zahm, of Huntington. Mr. Zahm has been ailing for sometime but last Wednesday became so low that his relatives were sent for. He lingered until Monday, at times conscious and at other time not knowing those nearest to him. Death was not unexpected as his age made it impossible for him to recover.

He was the father of a large family, and leaves to mourn their loss a wife and eight children as follows: Louis and Pius, of Huntington; Mrs. George Moore, of Michigan; Albert of Washington D. C.; Rev. John A. Zahm, of Notre Dame; and three daughters teaching in the convent, namely Sisters Teresina, Angeline and Angelita. Besides these he leaves one brother, and two sisters George Zahm of Wabash County, Mrs. Anne Beaver of Wabash County and Mrs. Mary Bletzacker, of Ohio, besides a host of other relatives and friends.

Notre Dame Archives Index JZA001

"John Augustine Zahm, born 14 June 1851 in New Lexington, Ohio, entered the University of Notre Dame in 1867, received his A. B. in 1871, and his M. A. in 1873. Ordained a priest of the Congregation of Holy Cross in 1875, Zahm served as a professor of physics and administrator at Notre Dame until 1892. Intensely interested in upgrading the academic programs, Zahm also helped introduce the electric lighting and private residence hall systems to the campus. In 1892 he began writing about the problem of dogma and science, his most famous work being "Evolution and Dogma" published in 1896.

In 1896 Zahm became Procurator General of the Congregation of Holy Cross and spent the next two years in Rome, where he took an active part in the Americanist controversy, procured papal approval of Holy Cross College as a House of Studies for Holy Cross seminarians, and participated in the spirited debate over theories of evolution, particularly as they concerned his own book.

In 1898 he returned to Notre Dame as Provincial. He was active in building up the physical plant at Notre Dame, encouraging a higher level of scholarship, and attempting to smooth out relations with the Holy Cross Brothers while expanding the Congregation as a whole. Opposition, apparently both to this policies and to his personality, gained enough strength by 1906 to account for his failure to gain election as Provincial in the General Chapter.

Zahm spent the next fifteen years traveling, making two extended trips to South America, and writing about the people and places that intrigued him. His 1907 journey led to his two volumes, "Up the Orinoco and Down the Magdalena" and "Along the Andes and Down the Amazon," published under the H. J. Mozans. In 1913 his traveling companion was the former president, Theodore Roosevelt. His subsequent book, "Through South America's Southland," completed his trilogy on South America.

Among his other published works was "Women in Science" (1913), a popular history of women's struggle for intellectual freedom and their accomplishment in the various scientific fields. Zahm's last work, "From Berlin to Baghdad and Babylon" was in manuscript form when he left for Europe in 1921 on a journey from Germany to the Middle East during which he hoped to verify some of his data. he contracted bronchial pneumonia and died in a hospital in Munich November 10, 1921."

Rev. Father Zahm.

From The History Of Perry County

"The log school house, the puncheon floor, "the rude desk of the jack-knife's carved initial " have sent forth many a successful graduate into the post-graduate course of actual life. Pigeon Roost School on the Logan road may justly be proud of two of her alumni ---MacGahan and Father Zahm. Both have been enlisted in the same cause---that of Liberty. The one for political, the other for intellectual. One fought to free people's bodies, the other to free their minds. One with pen and sword, the other with pen and microscope. One studied the hearts of the people, the other the great heart of nature. Both fought against enemies of the Christian religion---the one, the Turk, the other, the agnostic. Both were victorious.

Rev. Dr. Father Zahm, priest, scientist and author, is of German origin on the paternal side, while his mother belonged to the famous English family of General Bradock of pre-Revolutionary fame.

He was born in the southern part of Jackson township, in a log house which stood on land now owned by Mr. James Gordon.. He worked on the farm in summer and in the winter attended school at Pigeon Roost, where MacGahan was also a pupil at the same time. It is said that he was a very industrious student, a trait that has clung to him throughout life. In 1866 at the age of sixteen he went to Notre Dame University, where he graduated five years later with high honors. "After his ordination to the priesthood, which took place at the completion of his theological studies, Father Zahm, who had thus early shown a special fondness and capacity for scientific work, was placed in charge of the university's scientific department. "To him, perhaps, more than to any other single individual is the scientific school of Notre Dame indebted for the high renown which deservedly attaches to it; for in behalf of it and the university museum, of which he was for several years the curator, Dr. Zahm traveled far and wide in quest of materials wherewith to equip more fully these departments; and on these journeys he made many valuable scientific researches.

"The doctor's reputation as a scientist is by no means confined to this country. He is a member of more than one European scientific society; and his published works, 'Sound and Music,' 'Bible, Science and Faith,' and 'Evolution and Dogma,' are as well known on the other side of the Atlantic as on this, where they are to be found in almost every public library in the land. He is an accomplished linguist, speaking and writing several European languages with facility; and because of his scientific researches, his extensive travels and his recent residence in Rome, he is well and very favorably known to the leading ecclesiastics in this and other countries." "The doctor's attitude in regard to science is that faith and reason are harmonious. In other words, that the teachings of science are not incompatible with revealed religion."

"The doctor has never forgotten Perry County and the little log school house at Pigeon Roost, where the first foundations of his present profound and comprehensive learning were laid. Journeying to the Pacific slope some years ago, he had as traveling companions the late Judge Huffman and wife, and in the course of conversation he learned that the Judge hailed from Perry County. Whereupon the doctor jubilantly exclaimed that that was his native county, and proceeded to ask the latest news from New Lexington and Somerset and all the adjacent places; and when his curiosity had been in a measure satisfied, he spoke affectionately of the days when he studied under Master Gordon in the little log building that stood on the Logan Road."

Herald - Press, Huntington, Indiana, July 23, 1954

Dr. Albert F. Zahm, 92, brother of Pius Zahm and the late Louis Zahm of Huntington, and a pioneer in aeronautical science who built a wind tunnel for experimental purposes 20 years before the Wright brothers' famous flight, died Friday in the student infirmary of the University of Notre Dame campus. Zahm, a retired member of the Notre Dame faculty, had been bedfast since his hip was fractured in a fall a year ago.

Dr. Zahm built the wind tunnel at Notre Dame in 1882. He conducted many flight experiments at the school where he was associated for 70 years as a student, faculty member, advisor and friend. In 1925 Dr. Zahm was awarded the Notre Dame's Leatare Medal, an annual presentation to a Catholic distinguished in his profession. He also has received the John Hopkins University medal in aeronautics, and the degree of doctor of science in aeronautics from that university. He also served as director of the U. S. Navy's aerodynamics laboratory.

From 1929 to 1946 he was chief of the aeronautical division of the Library of Congress in Washington. He lived in retirement in Washington until last year when he returned to the Notre Dame campus. Dr. Zahm was graduated from Notre Dame in 1883, and remained on the campus to teach and conduct experiments in flying. Veteran professors at the university recall how he suspended a cable from the dome of the administration building. On the cable he would dangle a volunteer student whose arms were attached to a crude set of wings. Dr. Zahm also constructed gliders that flew off the roof of the science hall on the campus. Among his inventions are a three-torque control for airplanes, the wire tensometer, the vectorgraph protractor and the three component umenograph.

Dr. Zahm was born in Lexington, Ohio in 1862 and moved with his parents to Huntington County to live on the Zahm farm, now the home of Eugene F. Zahm, a nephew. Another brother, John A. Zahm, was a priest of some prominence in the field of Catholic education, and was the author of a book on "Evolution and Dogma," as well as other writings. Three sisters became nuns and were teachers and a fourth sister, Mrs. Ida Moore, now deceased, lived near Midland, Mich.

Nieces and nephews of Dr. Zahm include Eugene F. Zahm, William Zahm, the late George Zahm, Mrs. Dave Roberts of Evansville, and Mrs. John Lacey, of Wheaton, ILL., all the children of the late Louis Zahm, and Miss Florence Zahm, Paul Zahm Sr., and Harmon Zahm, Akron, children of Pius Zahm.
Funeral services will be conducted on the Notre Dame campus at 10:30 a.m. Tuesday, and burial will be in the Notre Dame Cemetery.

Dr. Albert Zahm Dies at Notre Dame July 24, 1954

South Bend -- (AP) -- Dr. Albert F. Zahm, 92, a pioneer in American aeronautical science, died today at the University of Notre Dame where, as a student and later a faculty member, he conducted many of his experiments.

Dr. Zahm built a wind tunnel on the campus about 20 years before the Wright brothers made their first flight at Kitty Hawk, N. C.

Dr. Zahm was born in New Lexington, Ohio. He was graduated from Notre Dame in 1883 and received his master's degree two years later.

Dr. Zahm told this story of how he became interested in the possibility of flying:

"One day in a Greek class the professor told the story of Daedalus and Icarus, the two mythological characters who fashioned wings for themselves so they could fly. I decided then and there to find a method of flight.

In 1925, Notre Dame awarded its Laetare Medal to Dr. Zahm. At that time he was director of the U. S. Navy Aerodynamical Laboratory and from 1929 to 1946 was chief of the aeronautical division of the Library of Congress.

Dr. Zahm never married.

Laetare Medal to Dr. Zahm, an Aeronautical Engineer

Washington, D. C., Jul. 20, 1925. -- Notre Dame University's Laetare Medal, awarded each year to a distinguished Catholic layman in the country, was formally presented to Dr. Albert Francis Zahm, United States Navy aeronautical engineer, on Monday, at a ceremony at Holy Cross College.

Rev. Louis M. Kelly, C. S. C., superior of the college, made the presentation, reading the university's citation of the medalist, as "a pioneer in the theory of aerial navigation". Admiral William S. Benson and Charles P. Neill, who preciously have won the medal: Msgr. Paul Marella, auditor of the Apostolic Delegation, and several other, were among the notable guests.

The medal bears a likeness of the great Notre Dame dome, about which an airplane is circling.

Introduction to Notre Dame Research - Since the early days of Notre Dame, research has been an important part of the academic life of the University. The faculty's long-standing commitment to research has yielded many significant firsts: Professor Albert Zahm built the first wind tunnel for comparing lift to drag of aeronautical models (1882).

"A History and Philosophy of Fluid Mechanics" by G. A. Toksty - "Zahm was the first man in the history of aerodynamics to undertake a program of study of the nature and quantitative laws of air friction on wind-tunnel walls."

QUICKLY THE SUMMONS CAME TO MR.

JOHN BLETZACKER

SUNDAY MORNING, CALLING HIM TO HIS LONG HOME ---- PROMINENT IN BUSINESS FOR YEARS ----- FUNERAL WEDNESDAY MORNING

Mr. John Bletzacker, the venerable furniture dealer, of the firm Bletzacker & Sons, died very suddenly Sunday at his home on East Main Street, of an attack of neuralgia of the heart. He had been felling quite well during the early morning and had been sitting at a front window watching the people pass on their way home from church, when his son George and his wife called in to see the family a moment. About nine o'clock he complained of feeling sick and was assisted to his bed and his physician was called, but he got rapidly weaker and died in a few minutes with his family gathered about him.

Mr. Bletzacker was born in Alsace Loraine, France, Sept. 5th, 1834, and came with his father and two brothers, Joseph, of North Columbus Street, and Martin, of Somerset, to the United States in 1847, landing in New York on July 4th.

They proceeded to Buffalo by boat and from there they went to Perry County, Ohio and settled near Somerset where he resided till he was of age when he came to Lancaster and went to work in the railroad shops. Later, he in partnership with Henry Shugart, opened up a cabinet making business which they very successfully operated for some time, after which he opened a furniture business with David Foster on North Columbus Street. After dissolving partnership with Foster he opened a furniture store on Main Hill where he continued to prosper until June of 1893, when his business had grown too large for the building and he and his sons, Ed and Will purchased a block on South Broad Street and opened a much larger store under the firm name of Bletzacker & Sons and the business has grown to extensive proportions.

On November 23, 1858, he and Miss Mary Zahm were united in marriage at St. Joseph's Church, Perry County. To this union eight children were born, three dying in infancy. His devoted wife and five children, Edward, William, and George, Ella and Clark survive to mourn.

The funeral will be conducted Wednesday morning at 8:30 o'clock from St Mary's Church by Rev. N. E. Pilger. Interment in Oakholie Cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. George Zahm Celebrate Golden Wedding Anniversary Sunday
Day A Memorable One

The 50th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. George Zahm of Wabash County was fittingly observed Sunday, June 14 by more than 100 relatives and friends from northeastern Indiana and Ohio who gathered at the attractive Zahm farm home, three miles north of Lagro, to partake of a bounteous golden wedding dinner and offer their congratulations to the aging couple. The day was a memorable one in many ways.

The Zahm home lawn was attractively decorated with flags and bunting under which were spread the long tables with the best things to eat from city and country. The bride's table had its own decorations and its bride's cake. Following the feast the guests grouped themselves about the honored host and hostess, after which all listened to the speeches by Fr. Sullivan and Mutch extending congratulations and good wishes for prosperous years to come, and the expressed hope of Mr. Zahm that all might continue to enjoy life for years to come.

In addition to these good wishes, Mr. and Mrs. Zahm were recipients of several showers of gold pieces and silver together with three gold rosaries presented by relatives as tokens of lasting esteem, while many who were unable to be present sent from a distance their letters of felicitation. Among these was a letter read from Omer D. Green a nephew, formerly of Lagro, and now of Nocoma, Texas.

The bride of 50 years ago was born in Perry County, Ohio in 1839; the grey-haired groom in the same County in 1838, and they were married - she as Miss Mary M. Clark on June 14, 1864. They lived in Ohio a year and moved to Huntington, Ind., in the fall of 1868 they moved to Wabash County, settling on a farm near their present home. The next year they purchased of Judge Conner, of Wabash, the 80 acre home where they have resided ever since and where the golden wedding day was celebrated. With the exception of one child which died in infancy, the entire family is living although Mrs. Zahm for three years has been an invalid as a result of a stroke of paralysis sustained about five years ago. Mr. Zahm is hale and hearty and does much of his own farm work despite his 76 years, not a few of which he put in clearing his present home which was woodland when the young couple moved upon it 45 years ago.

Besides Mr. and Mrs. George Zahm, among those present at the golden wedding celebration were Mrs. Mary Bletzacker, the only remaining sister of Mr. Zahm, who lives in Lancaster, Ohio, and the following sons and daughters - Clem Zahm, wife and daughter, Marie of Wabash County, Edward Zahm, wife and daughter Virginia, of Elkhart; Clara McGuire, husband and daughter, Pearl, of Lagro, and Rose Zahm, living at home. Another son Lew Zahm of Palestine, Texas, was unable to attend.

Others present at the gathering were Mrs. Augusta Bennett and daughter Marie, of Junction City, Ohio; Jerome Anderson, of East Fultonham, Ohio; D. Bletzacker and family, Mrs. George Schwartz, son and daughter, Mrs. James McManigal, Miss Mary Scherschel, Bertha Banister, Leslie Alexander and Ed Bruns all of Fort Wayne; Lewis V. Zahm and family, Pius Kraig and wife, Jerome Zahm, Mrs. Pius Zahm, son and daughter, C. W. GEORGE JOSEPH ZAHM. About forty-five years ago George Joseph Zahm began his activities as a farmer and citizen in Wabash County. He undertook the pioneer work of clearing off a tract of land and converting its acres into cultivated fields, and the result of those labors are now witnessed in his beautiful country home of eighty acres in Lagro Township, about two miles east of the Village of Speiker, on the south side of the road. Mr. Zahm and his family have always been known for their quiet prosperity and solid integrity, and such has been the record of his past years that he can rest content with his accomplishments and enjoy the prosperity won through long years. Mr. Zahm has lived in Wabash County since the fall of 1868.

He was born in Perry County, Ohio on October 7, 1838, and has already rounded out more than three-quarters of a century of human life. His parents were Nicholas and Elizabeth (Garhart) Zahm. The parents were born in Germany and were married in Oldenberg. While living in the Fatherland, Nicholas Zahm practiced the trade of shoemaker, but after his marriage and after six children had been born they emigrated to the United States, where three other children subsequently came into their household. For ten years their home was in Wayne County, Ohio, where the father bought a farm, and, selling that place, he moved to Perry County, Ohio, and bought a place containing sixth-two acres. Both he and his wife passed away on that old homestead, she in 1857 at the age of sixth-five, and he in 1874 on his eighty-seventh birthday. Their children were named as follows: Nicholas, Margaret, Catherine, Ann, Peter, Jacob, John, all of whom are now deceased; Mary, widow of John Bletzacker of Lancaster, Ohio, and George J., the youngest.

George J. Zahm spent his early boyhood in Perry County, Ohio. When he was six or seven years of age he began walking back and forth to the district school, which was kept in a log building, and he spent many weary hours sitting on the rough log benches, made from split chestnut trees, smoothed off on the upper side, and supported by wooden pins driven into the underside. The work on a pioneer farm was never ending, and consequently the boys of that generation found more practical training in plowing and planting and in swinging an ax than they got in the schools. George Zahm from an early age took his place in the woods and in the fields, helped clear the land and assisted his father with the cultivation until he was about sixteen years of age. At that time he began working at the carpenter's trade, under his brother Jacob, and for about ten years that was the source of his livelihood.

One June 14, 1864, he married Mary M. Clark, a daughter of Francis and Rebecca (Flowers) Clark. This family had earlier settled in Perry County, and their home was about one mile from the Zahm farm. Mary Clark was born there, and she and George Zahm were children together, and were thus married out of the same neighborhood and had the same early associations.

In the fall of 1865 Mr. and Mrs. Zahm moved to Huntington Indiana, which was then a comparatively small village, though a hustling business place. In Huntington Mr. Zahm spent about three years in the carpenter's trade and was gradually getting a little bit ahead in the world. His wife's parents had come to Huntington at the same time, buying a farm near the county seat, where they lived until their death. All made the trip from Ohio with horses and wagons, very much after the pioneer style.

In 1868 Mr. Zahm took a contract to cut timber for his brother-in-law, William Anderson, who had bought a large tract of timber land from John Roach of Huntington. After about one year with Anderson, Mr. Zahm bought his present farm in Wabash County. Its former owner was Judge J. D. Connor of Wabash. Nearly every acre of the land was at the time covered with heavy timber, and there was not a building or improvement on the farm. Mr Zahm put up a little cabin, which is now used as a kitchen of his more commodious home, and from time to time as his means and time allowed, he added to his residence, until it is now both an attractive and comfortable home, As situated behind the trees and well back from the public highway. As soon as he had provided for the simplest living necessities, Mr. Zahm undertook the clearing of the timber from his land. He cut and hauled the logs to the canal at Lagro, which was then an important shipping point, and thus practical all the merchantable timber on his land went by water route to market. In this way he gradually cleared off his fields, tilled it and otherwise improved the land, and for many years followed general farming with increasing prosperity. About three years ago he began renting out his fields, and has since retired from active business.

Mr. and Mrs. Zahm are now living comfortably at their old homestead, which represents their joint labors and economy, and their children are all married and have left home, except Miss Rose, the youngest, who lives at home and looks after her parents with admirable filial devotion. Mr. Zahm is a self-made man in the fullest sense of the term, and everything that has come to him is the result of hard and honest toil. He is a man of his word, which once given is never broken; is fair and just in all his dealings, and has a host of friends in Wabash County.

Mr. and Mrs. Zahm are the parents of the following children: William Clement, who married Cora Hamilton and has one child, Marie; Pius Francis, the second child of Mr. and Mrs. George J. Zahm, died aged about one year; Louis, who married Melinda Hamilton, a sister of Mrs. William C. Zahm, and she died in August, 1909; Clara, who is now Mrs. John T. McGuire and has one child, Pearl; Edward, who married Bessie Frushure, has a daughter, Virginia, and Miss Rose. The Zahms are members of St. Patrick's Catholic Church at Lagro, and Mr. Zahm was for twenty-five years honored with the position of trustee in the church. On Sunday, June 14, 1914, Mr. and Mrs. Zahm celebrated their golden wedding.

IN MEMORY OF ALBERT J. BENNETT

BENNETT, ALBERT J. -- Born April 25th, 1857, at Whippstown, Ohio, died at Junction City, Ohio, March 21, 1912 aged 54 years, 10 months and 26 days.

Al Bennett is dead. As the sun was setting behind the western hills, death came to our friend, carrying him into a far country, whose boundaries, God alone can map.

A. J. Bennett was not an ordinary, but a common man. In the railroad world and in the business and social life of his community he leaves a long line of loyal and loving friends. In this sad hour that now shadows his home, the sympathy of true hearts has been touched with sympathy for those who will miss him as husband, father, and friend. He was a useful man.

It is not best to lament the death of a man such as A. J. Bennett. Each day, for him, saw some work completed or some new work planned to start on its way. Every man that lives this life has faults or what appears to others to be faults. In life, A. J. Bennett was frank to confess what he deemed wrong in his life and living so when death came he had no confession to make those who watched and hoped that he might live.

For several years the deceased has not been a well man. But through his long suffering he bore it all patiently and with true Christian fortitude. He had been confined to his room since August 1st last.

It was April 25th, 1857, on his parents farm near Whippstown, Perry County, that A. J. Bennett was born. When 13 years of age he moved with his parents to Rehoboth. His early boyhood was spent on the farm and in the winter months attended the country school. At an early age he took up railroading as an occupation. For years he was a fireman on the Lake Shore roads, but later mastered telegraphy, which he followed for eighteen years at various points. He was agent and operator at Bristol, Junction City, Quaker City, Zanesville and other cities, but he was compelled to retire from the service 12 years ago owing to failing health.

He claimed his bride, May 20th, 1884, Miss Augusta Anderson, of Bristol, and to this happy union three children were born, all of whom survive. They are William, Frances, and Marie, all of the home. Besides the widow and children, four brothers and four sisters are mourning his death viz: John, George, and Richard of Columbus; James, of Wilbren. Mrs. Nicholas Hammond, and Miss Elizabeth Bennett, Columbus; Mrs. Charles Longstreth of Rehoboth and Mrs. James Weiner, Santoy.

The funeral services were held from St. Patrick's church, Junction City, on March 25th, a requiem high mass being celebrated for the repose of his soul, by his pastor, Rev. William O'Sullivan, the same who officiated at his marriage nearly 28 years since. In stress and storm A. J. Bennett was as rock to oak. To every friend he stood four square and in times of peace he was as sun and flower.

Our life is such that we do not know whether it is best for us to meet the sleep of death before our lips have learned to form a word, or at the end of life's uneven way. We do not know.

It is not for us to pass judgement on the living or the dead, but it is meant that when the final summons comes, whether like a flash from skies that are bright and fair, or out of the uninvited shadows, that we are ready to journey to that land where let us hope, will rise the Unending and Eternal Dawn.

Requiescat in pace.

Final Call Sunday Morning of Mr. George Bletzacker

"I do not think that they forgot

The ones they loved so dear,

I think love's message often comes

If we could only hear.

I do not think God means it so---

That we should lose our own,

Because He calls to them to come

I think perhaps they're lingering

Unseen, but very near

To make less less our loneliness,

Our fainting hearts to cheer."

On Sunday morning at 3:50, March 2, after months of weary suffering, death came to the relief of Mr. George Bletzacker at the family residence on West Fifth Avenue. Tuberculosis was the cause of his demise.

Notes for MICHAEL DOYLE MILLER:

Genealogy

We are the chosen. My feelings are that in each family there is one who seems called to find the ancestors, to put flesh on their bones and make them live again, to tell the family story and to feel that somehow they know and approve. To me, doing genealogy is not a cold gathering of facts but, instead, breathing life into all who have gone before. We are the storytellers of the tribe. All tribes have one. We have been called as if it were by genes. Those who have gone before us cry out to us: Tell our story. So, we do. In finding them, we somehow find ourselves. How many graves have I stood before now and cried? I have lost count. How many times have I told the ancestors you have a wonderful family, you would be proud of us? How many times have I walked up to a grave and felt somehow there was love for me? I cannot say. It goes beyond just documenting facts. It goes to who I am and why do I do the things I do. It goes to seeing a cemetery about to be lost forever to weeds and indifference and saying, I can't let this happen. The bones here are the bones of my bone and flesh of my flesh. It goes to doing something about it. It goes to pride in what our ancestors were able to accomplish, how they contributed to what we are today. It goes to respecting their hardships and losses, their never giving in or giving up, their resoluteness to go on and build a life for their family. It goes to deep pride that they fought to make and keep us a Nation. It goes to a deep and immense understanding that they were doing it for us that we might be born who we are, that we remember them. So, we do. With love and caring we scribe each fact of their existence, because we are them and they are us. So, as a scribe called, I tell the story of my family. It is up to that one called in the next generation to answer the call and take their place in the long line of family storytellers. That is why I do family genealogy....and that is what calls those young and old to step up and put flesh on the bones.
